

MARK TWAIN'S WAR MAP.

Mark's First Attempt in the Art Line—Official Commendations, &c.

The Buffalo Express of Saturday has a wonderful war map, drawn and engraved by Mark Twain, with explanations by the artist. Appended are some recommendations which the work has received.

TO THE READER.

The idea of this map is not original with me, but is borrowed from the Tribune and the other great metropolitan journals.

I claim no other merit for this production (if I may so call it) than that it is accurate. The main blench of the city paper maps, of which it is an imitation, is that in them more attention seems paid to artistic picturesqueness than geographical reliability.

Inasmuch as this is the first time I ever tried to draft and engrave a map, or attempt anything in the line of art at all, the commendations the work has received and the admiration it has excited among the people, have been very grateful to my feelings. And it is touching to reflect that by far the most enthusiastic of these praises have come from people who know nothing at all about art.

By an unimportant oversight I have engraved the map so that it reads wrong end first, except to left-handed people. I forgot that in order to make it right in print it should be drawn and engraved upside down. However, let the student who desires to contemplate the mapstand on his head or hold it before a looking-glass that will bring it right.

The reader will comprehend at a glance that that piece of river with the "High Bridge" over it got left out to one side by reason of a slip of the engraving-tool, which rendered it necessary to change the entire course of the river Rhine, or else spoil the map. After having spent two days in digging and gouging at the map, I would have changed the course of the Atlantic Ocean before I would have lost so much work.

I never had so much trouble with anything in my life as I did with this map. I had had heaps of little fortifications scattered all around Paris, at first, but every now and then my instrument would slip and bring away whole miles of batteries, and leave the vicinity as clean as if the Prussians had been there.

The reader will find it well to frame this map for future reference, so that it may aid in extending popular intelligence, and dispelling the wide-spread ignorance of the day.

The Tennessee Democracy.

The Democracy of Tennessee is sick. The sickness is of long duration. I do not claim to be much of a doctor—never have studied anatomy or pathology a great deal. I have never taken out a diploma as a physician. Yet, without pretensions in this direction, I am warranted in averring that the Democracy is sick, and I will go further, and make a diagnosis of the case.

The pulse is rapid—one hundred and ten in a minute—denoting a highly excited and febrile condition of the patient. It is also weak, denoting feebleness. A regular hectic glow appears, with a short and rapid respiration, indicating disease of the lungs. I pronounce it tubercular consumption. This disease, it is well known, is incurable after reaching a certain stage. That stage is already reached, and the patient must die, probably soon.

Pallatives are sometimes employed. These may give temporary relief, making the sufferer more comfortable for a little time. A decoction of North Carolina or Tennessee tar is sometimes useful. If I am not mistaken, the Democrats of Knox county took some Tarwater at the last election with marked effect. At all events it seemed to me the effect was quite visible. The night sweats were much diminished in frequency and quantity. We propose to apply a preparation of Maynard's Carminative Balsam internally, and one of Maynard's Adhesive Plasters externally—say on the region of the thorax—at the next election. We shall give the former in free quantities, and the latter shall cover the breast and the whole posterior region. We do not expect to cure the patient, for he is past redemption. He should make his will. It does not become me to dictate how he should dispose of his effects. I will venture to suggest. His Confederate estates—consisting of Confederate bonds, Confederate ship-plasters, Confederate hatred of our venerable Uncle Samuel and his numerous loyal nephews—all these and other kindred articles of personal property which he has in possession, together with certain State and Federal offices he expects to possess, whether by foul or fair means this deponent saith not, I would suggest be properly disposed of by will, viz.: His Confederate effects to Louis Napoleon, to be laid away with his Mexican and French mementoes in the place where the Prussians shall place him. The property in expectancy—i.e., the offices and stealings—the Democrats might will and bequeath to their great, great, great-grandchildren.

The Prince Imperial is taking daily exercise on the promenade at Hastings. It appears, says the Globe, that when the Emperor was formerly in this country, he resided for a short time at Pelham Cottage, which immediately adjoins the Marine Hotel, now occupied by the Prince. The chamber in which the father slept is separated only by the partition wall from that in which the Prince now sleeps.

"IT HAS THE BEST FERTILIZING ATTACHMENT IN USE."

And which for years has held the first position in all localities where guano, bone dust, lime and super-phosphate are used. Sows all these fine fertilizers, as well as ashes, plaster and salt perfectly. Whether it be dry or damp, it puts the fertilizer used in the drill with the grain, thus giving it the grain the entire and immediate benefit of the fertilizer used. By a recent improvement, we put this under the immediate control of the operator, enabling him to use his fertilizer on the barren portions of his field, and husband it upon the fertile parts. The GUANO ATTACHMENT must be ordered with the Drill, if desired, as it cannot afterwards be attached.

Metal or Rubber Grain Funnel, as desired. Double Reversible Steel Points on Tubes. Broad Faced Wheels and Wrought Iron Axles.

Acknowledging the decline of price of farm produce, and the closeness of financial matters among our patrons, the justice of their claim for a corresponding reduction in the price of farm implements, we have determined to reduce the price of Grain Drills to the old standard of 1870.

Confident a discriminating public will appreciate our effort, and avail themselves of this "golden opportunity" to secure one of these most useful labor-saving implements at old prices, while labor still ranges at a war standard, we have established the following prices for Drills, delivered on board boat or cars at Baltimore:
